

Upcoming Classes at The Lily Art Center

Classes held at the Studio at Greene & Berkey, located at the intersection of Greene Rd & Berkey Ave. For more information contact Janis Martin 574.825.7787

Come join us for a journey of adventure, exploration and discovery

Exploring the World Around Us, the Everyday, the Ordinary – Discovering the Extraordinary.

Nine weeks beginning

Tuesday evenings March 2, 2010 Cost $150
6:30 - 9:00 PM

Thursdays afternoons March 4, 2010
1:30 - 4:00 PM

A painting class designed to increase our ability to observe and interrupt the world around us and to have fun discovering something new about the ordinary experiences of life.

janis martin

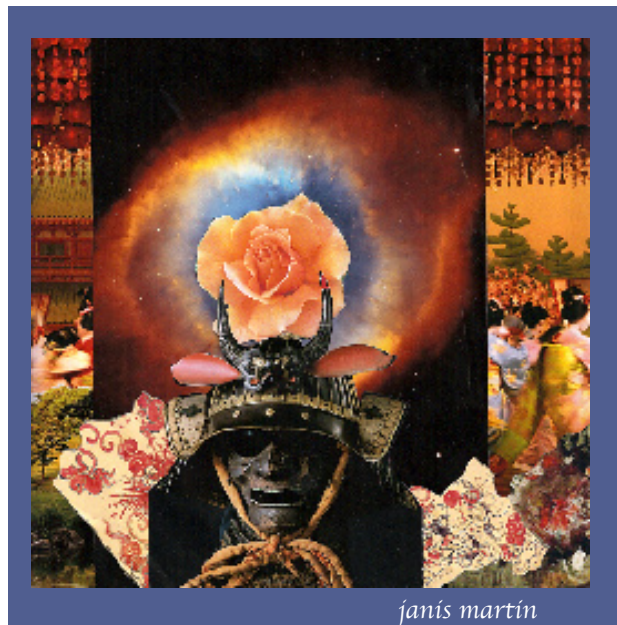

Exploring Old Archetypes and Discovering New Truths

Six weeks beginning

Wednesday evenings beginning March 3, 2010

Cost $95.00
6:30 - 9:00 P.M.

An interdisciplinary class using collage, assemblage and painting to write and illustrate new myths and stories. Every session will include a group discussion.

janis martin

Artists revive old myths and generate new ones. Because their primary sources are spiritual, nonmaterial, they can have clearer vision. By the use of myths, artists put society in touch with universal basic questions and feelings we all have about life. Audrey Flack

Please stop by our online stores www.cafepress.com/TheEdges, a gift shop created to fund our dreams for the world. We have mugs, posters, journals, cards, magnets, tote bags and t-shirts. All the gifts at the store are based on original paintings. While there visit our shop next door www.cafepress.com/NotJustACliche